FROM SPACES TO PLACES

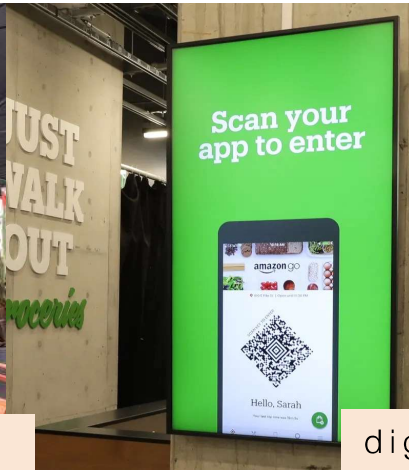

London is – and always will be – the go to place for retail inspiration. In this vibrant city all elements of exciting retail concepting, and design come together. We make a combination of the stores you cannot miss, but also show you attractive places where food, lifestyle and social meeting comes together. In other words: spaces that have become places.

In London you can see how food, lifestyle, art, fashion and shopping blends together. How every place can be united and more then the sum of its parts by strong branding and an umbrella-concept.

In a two-day trip we shower you with inspiration and give you a taste of everything modern retail has to offer.
